

Tina Iachini's Biography

Tina Iachini is full professor of general psychology at the Department of Psychology, University of Campania Vanvitelli (Italy), where she teaches "Human Cognition & Virtual Reality" and "Cognitive Sciences". She is head of the Lab of Cognitive Science & Immersive Virtual Reality, coordinator of the European Master in Psychology of Cognitive Processes, coordinator of the multidisciplinary research group on Human-Environment Interaction and Multisensory Virtual Reality. She has been a member of several scientific committees, project evaluation committees and is an associate editor and/or reviewer for leading scientific journals. Her research focuses on spatial cognition, mental imagery and virtual reality in different populations and with multidisciplinary methods.